

GALEELIO VS. SINTRA

The story of two AI workforces, and how Galeelio owns what Sintra left behind.

CHAPTER

01

SETTING THE SCENE

THE CATEGORY SINTRA BUILT

SELL A TEAM, NOT A CHATBOT

In 2023, a small team in Vilnius, Lithuania set out to solve a real problem: small business owners drowning in work they couldn't afford to hire for. Their answer was simple — twelve named AI employees, each with a job title and a personality.

THE HONEST READ

Sintra didn't win by accident. It made an abstract technology feel like something a non-technical business owner could hire, trust, and talk to by name.

CHAPTER

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE STORY

THE CRACK IN THE FOUNDATION

02

TWELVE EMPLOYEES WHO DON'T TALK TO EACH OTHER ISN'T A TEAM.

THE COMPLAINT

Independent reviews converge on the same issue, again and again: the helpers don't share context. A business owner has to manually carry information from one AI employee's chat window to the next.

IN PRACTICE

Cassie can't hand a qualified lead to Milli. Dexter's analysis doesn't automatically inform Penn's next piece of copy. Every "employee" works in its own silo.

SHALLOW AUTOMATION

Falls short of tools like Zapier — no complex workflows or conditional triggers.

A FIXED ROSTER

Little ability to customize the twelve helpers, or build one of your own.

PRICING THAT CLIMBS

No true free plan — a buyer has to commit financially before testing it properly.

ONE BUYER ONLY

Built for the solopreneur — no real governance, permissions, or compliance story for mid-sized teams.

None of this makes Sintra a bad product. It makes it a product with a shape — built for one kind of customer, doing one kind of job well.

03

THE OPPOSITE ASSUMPTION

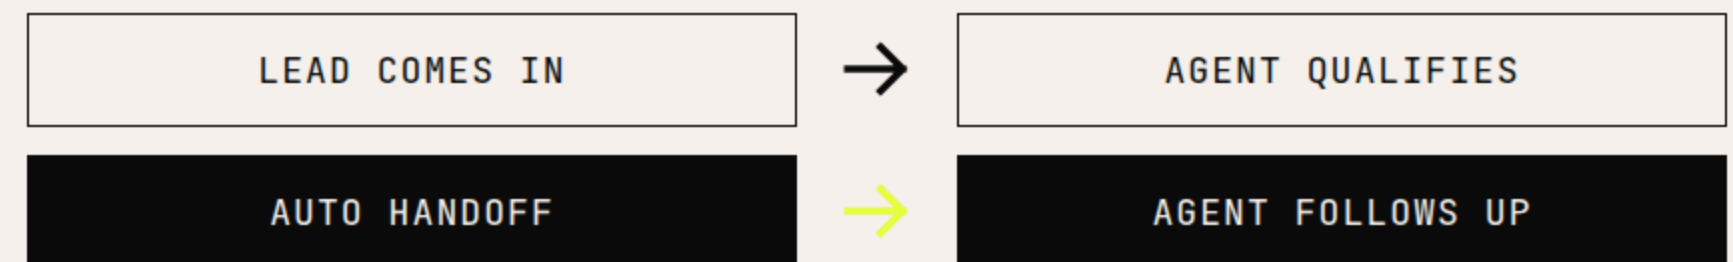

WHY GALEELIO EXISTS

AN AI WORKFORCE SHOULD BEHAVE LIKE A REAL TEAM, NOT A DIRECTORY OF SPECIALISTS.

THE MECHANISM

Where Sintra sells twelve employees and leaves coordination to you, Galeelio sells a squad — agents pre-configured for a specific job, wired together so one agent's output becomes the next agent's input. No copying between windows.

THE HANDOFF, IN PRACTICE

The business owner sees the outcome, not the handoff.

THE POSITIONING, IN ONE LINE

SINTRA GIVES YOU A LIST OF AI EMPLOYEES.

GALEELIO GIVES YOU A TEAM THAT ACTUALLY WORKS LIKE ONE.

STANDING THEM SIDE BY SIDE

04

DIMENSION	SINTRA	GALEELIO
CATEGORY FRAMING	Fixed cast of 12 generic AI personas for solopreneurs	Pre-configured, industry-specific squads built for a named job
AGENT COLLABORATION	Helpers work in silos; work is moved between them manually	Agents share context and hand off work automatically
CUSTOMIZATION	Little ability to customize or create your own helpers	Squads reshaped and extended around the real workflow
AUTOMATION DEPTH	Limited to simple tasks; no complex workflows or triggers	Multi-step workflow logic built for real handoffs
PRICING MODEL	Fixed tiers, no true free plan, cost climbs fast for teams	Transparent, usage-based pricing with a low-friction trial
ENTERPRISE READINESS	Built for solopreneurs; governance is not the focus	Data residency, audit logging, and permissions as core
PRIMARY BUYER	The individual solo founder or small business owner	Small and mid-sized teams, one industry at a time

BEYOND THE FEATURE COMPARISON

HOW GALEELIO WINS THE SPACE

01

PICK A FIGHT YOU CAN WIN

Own one vertical completely — the obvious, specific answer for one kind of business, in one market — before expanding outward.

02

MAKE IT UNDENIABLE, NOT CLAIMED

The cross-agent handoff has to be demonstrable in thirty seconds, live, in front of a buyer who has likely tried Sintra already.

03

BUILD TRUST SINTRA NEVER HAD TO BUILD TWICE

Governance, data handling, and honest, provable claims are the reason a considered buyer chooses the newer, smaller platform.

THE STORY WE TELL THE MARKET

SINTRA PROVED BUSINESSES WANT AN AI TEAM. GALEELIO IS THE VERSION BUILT FOR TEAMS THAT ACTUALLY NEED TO GET REAL WORK DONE TOGETHER — NOT JUST TALK TO TWELVE ASSISTANTS ONE AT A TIME.

THE AI WORKFORCE CATEGORY ISN'T FULLY OWNED YET. IT WILL BELONG TO WHOEVER FIRST MAKES A CONNECTED AI TEAM FEEL TRUE — NOT JUST DESCRIBED.

Galeelio can take that space — deliberately, one vertical and one proof point at a time — starting from honesty about what's built today, not what's promised for tomorrow.
